THE CLINTON HOUSE. PHE Subscriber would inform the travelling public that he has opened a Hotel at Clinton, on the Laurens Railroad, for the accommodation of all travellers visiting that flourishing village. Every attention will be paid to every department of the house, and no pains will be spared to insure comfort to its patrons.

The village of Clinton is one of the most flourishing places in the State. It is immediately on the Railroad, and is one of the best and most important Cotton markets in the up-country. Its merchants are enterprising and accommodating, and provide themselves with heavy and select stocks of goods.

The want of a Hotel at Clinton has been greatly folt, and as that accommodation is now provided, I hope to receive a share of public patronage, as I am determined to deserve it.
